Based on your qualifications and experiences, briefly describe why your service on the Durham City Council would be beneficial to the City of Durham

Because of my unconditional love for all people five years ago with Gods help I went full time working for my self while also being able to be a beacon of light, no matter what location I may be in with in the City. Starting my own consulting firm put me in spaces I would never dreamed my self fit. Clients ranging from business owners to effectively running a congressional campaign. I was able to get 1st hand the issues of

Well let's see, I am a new member of Cameroon Great Missionary Baptist church over in Brooktown. I am heavily involved in other ministries at the church as well. In addition to my civic duties there I am also the Executive Director of a nonprofit entitled Tri-County ministries of Jesus Christ inc. Being a servant of the people has been a part of my everyday life. I ask you to tell me what better way to say this is what all my civic practice is for.

To whom it may concern,

One important factor that you must check off your list of qualifications as a must-have when being a servant to the public is compassion. I have known Mr. Lawton his entire life. He is the type of person who puts the needs of all others before his own. He is driven by results, no games here, trust all heartfelt compassion and love is what he exudes. I am a proud African American business owner holding several different titles in the professional world. Mr. Lawton not only assisted with gathering coat donations to help assist in the yearly coat drive that my former nonprofit hosted.

At the time Mr. Lawton lived in Macon Ga. about two and a half hours away from Statesboro Ga. He eagerly drove down and helped set up the area and volunteered to use his office in the city as a drop-off location to collect coats throughout the city. If you're looking for someone who will get actively involved in finding the perfect solution to what your city needs please look no further. He will make the perfect puzzle piece for the Durham County City Government.
